Jack Dammes Ltd

Here at Jack Dammes we believe there are many good reasons to throw a party; we have therefore created food ideas for all such occasions. Our head chef and staff will work with you to produce the perfect menu to suit your budget and the style of your event or celebration.

Menu's for all occasions: casual - formal - networking - relaxing Service to match: waiter service - self service

Good appetites await the sounding gong

the gong awaits the chef's supreme decree

the festive board awaits the festive throng

good food, good wine, good health, good company

We believe that the preparation, style, and variety of foods are ever changing and personal. Our menus are updated as the seasons change, or whenever a better idea comes along. Remember our menus are not "cast in stone" and should you have your own personal ideas we will be only too happy to implement them for you.

Now if all this talk about food inspires you to call us, let us know the event you're planning. We'll bring our suggestions, combine them with your ideas, and together we'll make your celebration unforgettable, with catering that your guests or clients will remember you by, and which need not cost the earth.
